

Tin I (Tim) ZHANG

Department of Government and Public Administration, University of Macau
Humanities and Social Sciences Building (E21B), Avenida da Universidade, Taipa, Macau SAR, China
Mobile: +853 6801 1252 | Email: tim.tzhang@outlook.com | Personal Website | LinkedIn Homepage

EDUCATION

University of Macau (UM) Bachelor of Social Sciences in Government and Public Administration (International and Public Affairs) • Cumulative GPA: 3.72/4.00 (Top 10%) • Selected Methods Coursework: Social Sciences Research Methods (A), Quantitative Reasoning for Social Sciences (A), Statistics and Data Analysis (A), Game Theory for Politics (A), Political Economy and Formal Theory (A), Data Science and R Programming (A-), etc. • Selected Substantive Coursework: International Political Economy (A), Asian Politics: Comparative Political Economy and Development (A), The Rise of Asia: Political Economy and International Relations (A), Seminar on Chinese Public Administration (A), International Organizations and World Governance (A), Understanding Government (A), European Politics (A), Introduction to Economics (A-), etc.	Macau SAR, China Aug 2023–present
National University of Singapore (NUS) Summer School on Singapore, Asia and the Global Economy • Key Components: International Political Economy; Regional Integration; Development Strategies; Trade and Financial Connectivity; Technological Change and Green Transition.	Kent Ridge, Singapore Jun 2026–Jul 2026
London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) Summer School on Statistics and Data Analysis • Key Components: Statistical Data Analysis; Probability and Distribution Theory; Regression Modeling; Sampling and Statistical Inference; Data Visualization with R.	London, United Kingdom Jun 2024–Jul 2024

RESEARCH INTERESTS

International Political Economy; Comparative Political Economy; Globalization and Domestic Politics; Political Economy of Development; Information Politics; Public Opinion; Distributional Politics.

WORKS IN PROGRESS

- When Problems Abroad Hit Home: Anti-Elite Frames and Political Beliefs in China
- Tracking Bill Changes in China’s Two-phase Lawmaking Process (with Jiying Jiang)

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Economics, Political Science, and Empirical Research Methods Public Affairs and Political Economy Research Workshop (PAPER) • Participate in weekly meetings to discuss frontier papers in economics, political science, and methodology, with particular emphasis on studying and applying empirical research designs and methods such as causal inference and survey experiments; develop individual research projects and regularly present progress to the group.	Coordinator: Prof. Tao Li Aug 2025–present
Computational Social Science, Policy Process, and Legislative Politics Research Assistant, Department of Government and Public Administration, University of Macau • Build and maintain an original legislative dataset covering 486 NPC laws and 381 public consultation records, including the digitization, cleaning, and structuring of draft versions and final enacted texts for 98 laws adopted through a two-phase lawmaking process. • Match and track article- and paragraph-level revisions across legislative drafts and final texts using R-based text processing workflows, cosine similarity, and Jaro–Winkler string distance, contributing to a novel text-as-data infrastructure for studying legislative politics and policy processes in China.	Supervisor: Prof. Jiying Jiang Aug 2024–present
Social Network Analysis and Collaborative Governance Summer Research Training and Workshop, University of Macau • Collected large-scale administrative data on intergovernmental cooperation among Chinese local governments from multiple sources, cleaned and structured 747 observations, and used them to develop social network models for statistical analysis and visualization.	Instructor: Prof. Shuwen Zhang Jun 2026–Jul 2026
Legislative Transparency, Public Consultation, and Bill Revisions Undergraduate Summer Researcher, University of Macau • Participated in an empirical study of legislative transparency in China; collected and cleaned large-scale textual data using code-based web-scraping tools, processed 234 public consultation records, and used R to automate article-level matching, filtering, and descriptive statistics for draft laws across consultation stages for 89 laws.	Principal Investigator: Prof. Jiying Jiang May 2025–Aug 2025

ACADEMIC SERVICE & ENGAGEMENT

Youth Association of International Affairs
Head of Academics
Academic Officer

University of Macau
Jun 2025–present
Sep 2023–present

- Coordinate academic seminars and related programming in international relations and public affairs, including Jean Monnet Chair seminars; support the organization of the Macau International Knowledge Contest and the association’s flagship Model European Union Summit; and develop academic outreach and event communications for the wider university community.

Macau International Knowledge Contest
Invited Question Writer

Macau SAR, China
2024–2026

- Contributed annually to the development of competition questions on international affairs and European issues, designing multiple-choice, short-answer, scenario-based, and speech prompts to assess participants’ substantive knowledge, analytical reasoning, and ability to engage with applied international affairs problems.

Asia Pacific Week Conference
Delegate

Australian National University
Jun 2026

- Selected through a competitive application process as an international delegate to the four-day interdisciplinary conference; participated in academic panels, Q&As, debates, and workshops on regional security, artificial intelligence, governance, diplomacy, climate resilience, and other Asia-Pacific issues; engaged in academic and professional exchange with ANU researchers, policymakers, practitioners, and delegates from around the world.

AWARDS & HONORS

Golden Lotus Full Scholarship for Admission Examination, University of Macau	2023–2027
Dean’s Honor List, Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Macau	2023–2026
Ten Thousand People’s Scheme Nomination for FISS, Fudan University & University of Macau	(Declined) 2024
Member of Honours College, University of Macau	2023–2024

SKILLS

Languages: English (proficient), Mandarin Chinese (native)

Software: R, Quarto, L^AT_EX